

Discipline hearing summary- Kenneth Velacruz

At a hearing on March 10, 2021, a Panel of the Discipline Committee found registrant Kenneth Velacruz guilty of professional misconduct.

The allegations were as follows:

1. The registrant failed to comply with an order of a Panel of the College and failed to appear before a Panel of the Inquiries, Complaints and Reports Committee (ICRC) to be cautioned.

Penalty

The Panel ordered:

1. The registrant to be reprimanded by the Panel following the hearing.
2. The Registrar to select a date to suspend the registrant's certificate of registration for one month. If the registrant completes the terms, conditions and limitations set out in paragraph 3 below within two months of the date of the Order, the suspension will not be applied.
3. The Registrar to impose the following terms, conditions and limitations on the registrant's certificate of registration, all of which are to be completed at the registrant's own expense and within three months of the date of the Order:
 - Successfully or unconditionally pass a course focusing on ethics and professionalism.
 - Review all written College standards and provide written confirmation of review to the Registrar.
 - Require the registrant to respond to all College communication within 15 days.
4. The Registrant to pay $1,000 in costs to the College within one year of the date of the Order. The Registrar can impose an installment plan to ensure regular and consistent payment of the costs.

The full text of the Panel's decision will be published when completed.
